Riley is a clever, ambitious girl who strives for a perfect life. But the prospect of giving a big speech leads to a perfect mess. She is surprised to learn her sick stomach wasn't the flu, but anxiety. Riley discovers she isn't alone with these challenges and that help is nearby. Her grandfather gives her a treasured book about a girl who conquers a dragon. Like the girl in the book, Riley uses her strategies and the help of family and friends to move forward, one step at a time.
